

Hidden Worldviews

Why Do You Do What You Do?

Message Truth:

Many of the problems facing today's church are a result of the hidden worldviews which predominate much of our thinking. We have allowed our culture's traditions and progress to blur our interpretation of Scripture. In the early years of the Christian movement, individuals of means sold their earthly possessions and gave the proceeds to the poor as they left their homes and went to preach the gospel all across the known world at great personal cost. What prevents us from doing so today? Has the urgency of our cause lessened in these 2,000 years? No! What has changed, however, is that today we allow the hidden worldviews of materialism and individualism to hinder our obedience to the Great Commission.

Series Text:

⁹ For we know in part and we prophesy in part, ¹⁰ but when perfection comes, the imperfect disappears.

¹¹ When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me. ¹² Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. 1 Corinthians 13:9–12

Why do we not see clearly? What obstructs our view? Satan opposes our adoption of a Gospel-centered worldview.

- Worldview is the level of our rational existence where we understand and accept what is true and valuable.

"People do what is important to them," and their worldview is how they determine what is important.

- Music is the best indicator of a person's worldview.
- Worldview is instrumental in our conversion.
- Discipleship is the process of our pre-conversion worldview being changed into the gospel's worldview.
- Failure to completely change our worldview is a sign of spiritual immaturity.
- Acceptance of "hidden worldviews" makes Christians spiritually sick and ineffective.

² . . . be transformed by the renewing of your mind.

Romans 12:2b

²³ . . . be made new in the attitude of your minds;

Ephesians 4:23

¹⁰ . . . put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator.

Colossians 3:10

⁷ For as he thinks within himself, so he is.

Proverbs 23:7a (NASB)

Hidden worldviews attempt to reduce everything to categories which can be resolved with substitutes for God. In consumerism, wealth is seen as a substitute for security. Hedonism offers us sex as a substitute for love.

The Hidden Worldview of Consumerism or Materialism

- "I am what I own"

The promises of consumerism to give us p_____ and makes us s_____ are the prevue of God alone!

You can gauge what you value by what you most fear losing.

If we can be so easily manipulated by man, imagine how much more easily Satan may manipulate us.

God is the ultimate owner of what we have.

We Americans have consumed more resources over the last fifty years than the total used by the entire population of earth prior to 1950.

We use much more than we actually need and we know it. We are often unclear, however, as to why we do so.

The Hidden Worldview of Individualism

- "I am the Center of the Universe"

Is it possible to sing 'Jesus loves me' so loud that it drowns out the proclamation that 'God so loved the world?'

"One of the first questions we need to ask about any worldview is, "Who gets to be God?" Individualism attempts to put us in the 'God-position.'"

2 Types of Individualism in America Today

Utilitarian individualism - focuses on personal achievement and material success.

Expressive individualism - worships the freedom to express our uniqueness against constraints and conventions.

One reason individualism is so appealing to us is our own sinful nature gives each of us a strong bias toward our own selfish interests.

7 Generations Make Up Today's Church

- Lost generation born between 1893-1900
- Builders generation born between 1901-24
- Silent generation born between 1925-45
- Boomer generation born between 1946-60
- Busters or Generation X born between 1961-81
- Millennials born between 1983-2001
- Internet Generation born from 2001 to present
